Rho Chi Society

Rho Chi Society is the national honor society for students in the pharmaceutical sciences. Rho Chi scholars engender academic excellence. The royal purple honor cords signify Rho Chi Society membership.

Phi Lambda Sigma

Phi Lambda Sigma is the national pharmacy leadership society. The purpose of the society is to promote the development of leadership qualities in pharmacy. The color green indicates Phi Lambda Sigma membership.

Alumni Association at Chicago Student Leadership Award

Since 1972, the University of Illinois Alumni Association has had the privilege of honoring exceptional graduating students for their contributions as leaders of the various societies, groups, and organizations at UIC. Recipients of this award wear red honor cords.

The Oath of a Pharmacist

At this time, I vow to devote my professional life to the service of all humankind through the profession of pharmacy.

I will consider the welfare of humanity and relief of human suffering my primary concerns.

I will apply my knowledge, experience, and skills to the best of my ability to assure optimal drug therapy outcomes for the patients I serve.

I will keep abreast of developments and maintain professional competency in my profession of pharmacy.

I will maintain the highest principles of moral, ethical, and legal conduct.

I will embrace and advocate change in the profession of pharmacy that improves patient care.

I take these vows voluntarily with the full realization of the responsibility with which I am entrusted by the public.

The College of Pharmacy enjoys the proud distinction of being the oldest college in the University of Illinois system. Established in 1859 as the Chicago College of Pharmacy, it was the sixth college of pharmacy founded in the United States.
